Report That Submarine Has Been Captured Unconfirmed.

New York, June 3 .- German submarines, operating off the New Jersey coast, sank several American vessels during the night, according to reports brought in by the crews.

The first attack was made on the schooner Edwin H. Cole, 75 miles off the Jersey highlands at 4 p. m., Sunday. The crew landed here this morning.

A steamer and several other ships were said to have been sent to the bottom at various points along the coast, as far north as Nantucket shoals.

Capt. H. G. Newcombe of the Edwin H. Cole declared that two U-boats, flying the German navensign, captured his ship, after firing a shot across his bows; gave the men ten minutes to abandon ship, then blew up the vessel with bombs . outgoing shipping as soon as news of the vessel with bombs .

The campaign of German submarines on the American Atlantic coast, according to reports received here up to a late hour today, has netted them at least one American passenger steamer and five American schooners.

These are the losses definitely known. Reports of other attacks, including those on two American tank the submarines are the West indies declared today's raid fully demonstrated their theory. This theory was that the submarines which Sunk by Gunfire.

A wireless message saying the American schooner Isabel B. Wiley had been "sunk by gunfire off Block island" was picked up by an American steamship, which arrived here today from the West Indies. First reports were that the vessel reported destroyed was the schooner Ella M. Willey, but inquiry developed this vessel is in European waters.

The Isabel B. Wiley, from New York for a South American port, left Norfolk yesterday and as she was to continue her voyage to the south, it is assumed here that the part of the radiogram reading "off Block island" was misread by the steamship bringing the report. Block island is off the end of Long Island.

The steamship picked up the steamship pringing the report. Block island is off the end of Long Island.

Washington, June 3 .- Germany by triking with her submarines at the very doors of America has admitted o the world that the American army will turn the tide against her on the battlefields of France. As first news of the submarine raid on the Atlantic coast brought to the navy department today by Associated Press dispatches, was followed by official reports, na-val officials declared that the American anti-submarine forces in home waters were ample to meet the attack. All along the coast line, naval flyng boats, submarine chasers and num-ing boats, submarine chasers and numberless other naval craft immediately got into action.

All officials declared that the navy department was fully equipped to meet the thrust at the very fountain head of the flow of American troops to Europe, and that all its agencies were being brought into full force to find the submarines and destroy them. This challenge to the fighting forces of the United States would be met, officials said, with the same measures which have driven the submarines to cover in the war zone, and the steady flow of American transports to France.

Washington, June 3.—Limitation of debate in the senate during the war came up for discussion today thru the calling up by Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democrat, of his amendment to the rules providing that each senator may speak but one hour and twenty minutes on any amendment except when unanimous consent is given for an extension.

In a report in connection with the amendment it was stated by Senator Underwood that limitation of debate in the senate during the war came up for discussion today thru the calling up by Senator Underwood of Alabama, Democrat, of his amendment to the rules providing that each senator may speak but one hour and twenty minutes on any amendment except when unanimous consent is given for an extension.

These are the losses definitely known. Reports of other attacks, including those on two American tankships and another passenger steamer, came seeping in thru the afternoon and shipping men fear that the toll of losses thru this German surprise attack will be added to.

The ships definitely reported as attacked were: Steamer Carolina from Porto Rico, with 220 passengers. Schooners Edward H. Cole, Jacob S. Haskell, Isabel B. Willey, Hattle Dun and Samuel W. Hathaway.

The coastwise steamer City of Columbus, Savannah for Boston, with passengers, was added late today as another probable victim of the German sea raiders.

The attack on the Carolina became known this afternoon when word was received here that au S. O. S. call for help had come from her last night. Her wireless message picked up by naval ressels stated that a submarine was shelling the vessel and that the passengers had taken to the boats.

The Carolina is a sizel steamer of 5.093 tons, built at Newport News, in 1896. She is 331.5 feet long and has a beam of 47.8 feet.

The steamer originally was the Steamer La Grande Duchesse of the Plant line and later was the City of Savannah, owned by the Ocean Steamship company of Boston.

Topeka's Harvest Army Campaign Off With a Rush.

Special Feature for Tuesday's Worker Luncheon.

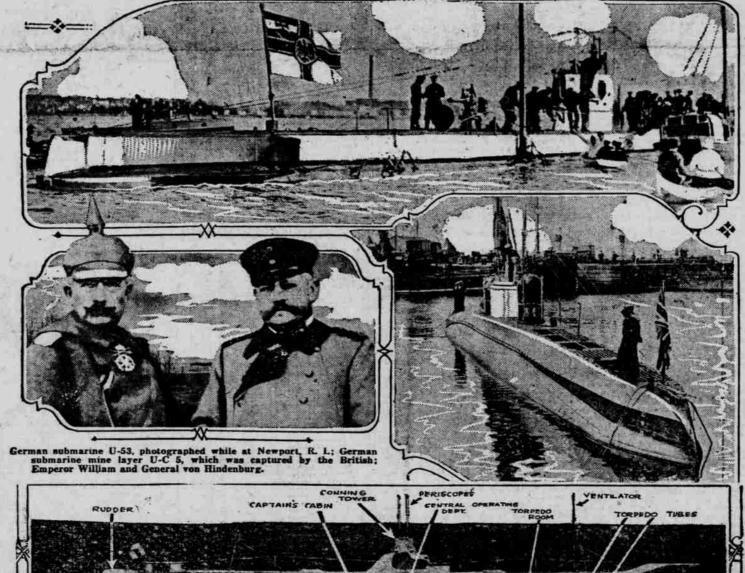

At the first campaign luncheon of the teams which have set out to enlist city men for the harvest of the golden grain this summer at the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow noon, a special feature attraction has been announced. Little 9-year-old Dorothy Rehkopf is to give a reading called "We've Raised the Flag Pole on the Farm."

Rumor reports this noon indicated that the harvest army already enlisted in Topeka today was about 1,500 men—and it was thought that by the end of the week when the campaign closes nearly every able bodied man left in Topeka would have signed up for his ten days' labor in the wheat fields at harvest time.

Lawrence, Kan., June 3.—A day of reckoning for the aristocracy of Germany—and that day after the war—was predicted by James W. Gerard, former American ambassador, in his commencement address this morning at the University of Kansas.

The ambassador had been introduced by Chancellor Frank Strong as "The last American ambassador to imperial Germany" and when Mr. Gerard arose he took up the idea, declaring he fully believed that the next American ambassador to Germany would be to a chastened and democratic people.

"Revolution cannot come now," he said, "but/when the soldiers return from the trenches they will tell their rulers, you promised us dominion over the whole world; you devil of a government."

today, the adjutant general's office also made explanation of the seeming discrepancies in apportionments for counties and districts under the June calls. It was stated that the apportionment was made under special and decidedly technical instructions from the war department and that the common methods of establishing quotas would not apply. The new quotas hit the cities and large towns a hard joit, while in the agricultural districts the apportionments were comparatively low. 6,000 men from the state took more than seven times as many men as did a call in May for 1,000 men. In Shawnee county outside the city of Topeka the quota is slightly more than five times as large as under the 1,000 call. Future inductions and credits will be figured on a new basis supplied by the war department, it is stated. The new order will allow credits only for inductions. No credits for previous volunteer enlistments will be given in establishing future induction quotas.
